A lawsuit has been started against you. You have been or will be served with a Summons and Complaint. If the plaintiff is successful, or you do not respond in time, you could end up owing money to the plaintiff, even though you may have received a discharge.

You should consult your attorney as soon as possible, unless you wish to represent yourself. If you are unable to afford an attorney, you may contact:

You will be screened for eligibility and if it is determined that you are eligible, an attorney may be found who will represent you without payment of attorney's fees.
